A short sketch of the oncesy of Jacob W. Mortin and Mory Mortin Mortin and the record of their lineage.

We want to thank all who so willingly furnished the information requested of you.

We were asked to get a family record together, and tried in our weakness to do so, altho we are aware that there may be some errors in it.

We hope that our feeble efforts might prove to be instructive and interesting.

Henry married Mattie Snader, Fannie died single, George married Annie Weaver, Lydia married Rufus Martin, John married a Weaver, Benjamin died small.

First Generation

Jacob W. Martin born June 29, 1830, died March 4, 1914. Married Mary Martin born June 2, 1830 died July 29, 1897. He taught school in the winter of his marriage in Weaverland Valley. Sayings are he was a very strict teacher. For many years they lived on a farm about 1 mile Northeast of Brownstown overlooking the Conestoga. Here they raised their family, Samuel B. Martin, a great grandson now living thereon. From here they moved on a farm a short distance north, now owned by Daniel H. Zimmerman. It was here she died. He and his single daughters then moved to South 11th Street, Akron (where Leonard Seibel now lives). Here he dies after falling and breaking a few ribs. They and their single children are all buried in Groffdale Mennonite graveyard, where they were members.

John M. born August 29, 1853 died February 15, 1930.

Ezra M. born June 2, 1855 died June 13, 1887.

Davis M. born December 4, 1856 died March 6, 1908 (Single).

Elizabeth M. born June 17, 1858 died March 21, 1913.

Susanna M. born December 6, 1859 died September 12, 1925 (single).

Annie M. born April 8, 1862 died June 15, 1931.

Lydia M. born September 27, 1870 died January 10, 1940 (single).

Stricken with polio at the age of 3 years. Therefore walked on crutches. Many were the stockings, mittens, caps and infant socks she knitted and crocheted.

Second Generation

John M. Martin born August 29, 1853 died February 15, 1930. Married September 25, 1873 to Catharine H. Horst born January 16, 1854 died February 3, 1940, daughter of David E. and Susanna (Horst) Horst. They went to house-keeping on her father's farm in Washington Co., Md. After living a few years in that state, they moved with their 4 small children on a farm in West Earl Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa., on the banks of the Cocalico Creek about 1 mile north-west of Brownstown. Isaac Burkholder is now owner and living thereon. Their last declining days were spent with their oldest son, Henry who lived on the old homestead about 1 mile northeast of Brownstown, overlooking the Conestoga Creek, where they had also farmed a number of years. Samuel B. Martin, a great grandson of the first Martin living thereon is now living thereon. It was in this home that grandpa John Martin and daughter-in-law Sallie B. Martin died within a few days time, Sallie dying before Grandpa was buried, but there were 2 separate funerals. It was in this home that Grandma spent her widowhood years, often relating to her grandchildren of experiences they went through the time of the Civil War, how her father hid in the barn in fear of soldiers, and their estates stolen of the time they spent in the state of Indiana account of war affects, then returning to their home in Maryland again.
